N/A
Describe any earned media coverage events/episodes during the reporting period.
Annual events such as the Domestic Violence and Sexual Awareness months that occur every October and April generate media coverage, such as newspaper articles and the local cable news reports. These events include proclamation signing events and outreach and awareness activities throughout the CNMI.
Describe any coordinated responses/services for assisting crime victims during the reporting period.
Sub grant recipients awarded with VOCA funds are diligent in ensuring that appropriate services are provided to the victims. These may include communication between appropriate agencies within the health, criminal justice, courts, etc..., to provide the necessary service/resource to meet the victim's needs.
Please discuss the major issues in your state that either assist or prevent victims from receiving assistance during the reporting period.
N/A
Please describe ways that your agency promoted the coordination of public and private efforts within the community to help crime victims during the reporting period.
Active participation within both government and non-government agencies in scheduled events, which include the planning and implementation of activities/programs; working closely with sub grant recipients to ensure services are provided effectively and efficiently.
Please describe any notable activities at the grantee level during the reporting period that improved delivery of victim services.
Providing resources to improve the capacity of service providers.
Please discuss each priority (i.e., child abuse, domestic assault, sexual assault, and underserved) in which VOCA funds have been used to assist crime victims during the reporting period
The Supervisory Council made certain to award sub grant recipients following the guidelines provided by OVC. The funding allotted ensures that each of these priorities, i.e., child abuse, domestic assault, sexual assault, and underserved, are addressed and that crime victims are provided with the needed assistance available to them.
Please briefly describe efforts taken to serve Victims of Federal crime during the reporting period.
Our sub grantees provide services to any and all victims of crime, which include victims of federal crime, to the best of their ability. If they are unable to provide certain services, they reach out to other agencies that have the capacity to provide the service and refer the victims accordingly.
Please identify any emerging issues or notable trends affecting crime victim services in your state during the reporting period.
N/A

A newspaper advertisement for availability of funding to solicit proposals is conducted three times within a two week span. The advertisement contains information about the funding, program and financial requirements. Our office also sends out emails to current and previous subgrantees to inform them of the opportunity.
Please explain how your state is able to direct funding to new/underserved populations during the reporting period.
Funding for underserved populations is guaranteed through OVC guidelines. As a result, the Supervisory Council has made available and awarded funds to this category.
Please explain how your program is able to respond to gaps in services during the reporting period.
Networking and collaborating with other agencies to fulfill the identified gaps.
Please list and explain any outcome measure(s) that are reported to the governor, legislature, or other state entity during the reporting period.

Office for Victims of Crime - Performance Measurement Tool (PMT)

An annual report is produced utilizing the data collected and submitted to the Governor. This annual report provides significant information on the work our subgrantees perform to assist crime victims and is useful in assisting the governor and/or legislature when making informed decisions on the issues of domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking, etc.,
