NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

1. Please explain any significant change in the number of applications received during the reporting period.
The number of applications received has increased this fiscal year by approximately 10% from the last three fiscal years.
2. The average length of time to process an application for claim eligibility for compensation
Count days from time of receipt of application to decision. 90

Please explain your state's procedure for processing an application for claim eligibility, from time of receipt of application to decision. Once an application is received and confirmed complete enough to process, the application is entered into our software program. Letters are sent to the Claimant, law enforcement, county attorney s offices as well as providers requesting documentation of the crime, charges filed against an offender, or documentation of the expenses related to the crime. The request to law enforcement includes a form that is completed by the law enforcement agency providing details of various eligibility requirements such as contributory misconduct, unlawful activity, and reporting timeframe. Once all of the documentation is received from law enforcement, the claimant is contacted to schedule a telephone interview. After the interview is complete, a recommendation is made to the CVC Board and the Board reviews the claim to approve or deny. The CVC Board meets once per month to review claims, and after the Board meets, letters are sent to the Claimants to notify them of the Board s decision.

8. Were there any laws, initiatives, or policy changes in your state regarding victim compensation during the reporting period? If yes, please briefly describe them and their impact.
Legislation was passed in 2021 that made two changes to the Kansas CVC eligibility. First, the definition of victim within the CVC statutes was expanded to include juveniles who witness a violent crime. These juveniles are eligible for mental health counseling, and may file beyond the 2 year application requirement, with a finding for good cause, until they turn 19. Additionally, victims of sexually violent offenses are eligible for mental health counseling if they file the application with CVC after 2 years, but before 10 years. Juvenile victims of a sexually violent offense are eligible to file for mental health counseling until 10 years from the date they turn 18.

During this reporting period, approximately 491 people were trained by Kansas CVC throughout the state. All trainings this year were conducted via virtual platforms, and a wide variety of agencies received training. Of particular note, connections were made with the Kansas Department of Commerce and the Migrant Seasonal Farm Worker Outreach Specialists to discuss labor trafficking, how crime victims compensation can help trafficking victims, and other financial support for people they may come in contact with who are victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or other crimes. This targeted outreach led to training people who do not work in the victim advocacy field/criminal justice system, but who do identify people being victimized.
