NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

1. Please explain any significant change in the number of applications received during the reporting period.
As a result of the reopening of the office after COVID closures, the Victims of Crime Program (VOCP) has experienced an increase in the number of VOCP applications received between July 1, 2021 - September 30, 2021.
2. The average length of time to process an application for claim eligibility for compensation
Count days from time of receipt of application to decision. 7

Please explain your state's procedure for processing an application for claim eligibility, from time of receipt of application to decision. Once an application is received, a request for a police report is submitted. Upon receipt of the police report, both the application and police report are reviewed and a decision is rendered. The victim is notified of the decision via a letter or email.
3. Does your state have a victim satisfaction survey?
No
4. Please describe any emerging/major issues or notable trends that were encountered in your state that had an impact on your program's ability to meet the needs of crime victims during the reporting period.
There are no emerging issues to note. The program has resumed normal functioning in terms of application processing.
5. Please describe in detail efforts taken to serve Victims of Federal Crime during the reporting period.
The VOCP staff works to efficiently process VOCP applications and ensure victims of crime receive adequate compensation and benefits for resources for which they qualify.
6. Please describe any notable activities during the reporting period that improved the process of victim compensation services.
The VOCP office began utilizing additional spreadsheets to ensure administrative staff were requesting police reports and police report verifications in a timely manner.
7. Please describe in detail ways in which your state used VOCA Administrative funds and the impact of these funds on the state's ability to improve victim compensation services during the reporting period.
VOCA administrative funds are utilized to pay for personnel and operating expenses needed to ensure the Victims of Crime Compensation program is adequately staffed to meet the needs of the individuals that submit applications to the program.
8. Were there any laws, initiatives, or policy changes in your state regarding victim compensation during the reporting period? If yes, please briefly describe them and their impact.
There were no law, initiative or policy changes during the reporting period.
9. Please describe system-coordination efforts with prosecutors, law enforcement, courts, U.S. attorneys' offices, tribal systems, State VOCA Victim Assistance Coordinator, or other key personnel within the criminal justice system in your state to reduce barriers to victims who may apply to receive victim compensation.
The program has adequately been able to provide assistance to victims by reaching out to law enforcement, Parole & Probation, attorneys and other agencies, to assist in expediting the processing of the claims.
10. Please explain any public outreach efforts to improve awareness of your program.
Due to COVID 19, all outreach events are currently on hold or are conducted via zoom or other video communications.
