

The OVC Center for VOCA Administrators

Support for Victim Assistance Administrators

The Office for Victims of Crime Center for VOCA Administrators (the OVC VOCA Center), managed by the National Criminal Justice Association, provides peer-to-peer training, technical assistance, and learning opportunities for Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Assistance and Compensation Administrators and their staff.

Addressing Gaps in Services

Improving Grant Administration

Managing Grant Funds

Reaching Underserved Populations

Aligning Crime Victim Services with Needs

Managing Subrecipients

Sharing Best Practices

Peer Coaching

Virtual Learning Communities

Collaboration with Other Federal Programs

Online Resources

New Administrator Academy

Meetings and Networking Events

Visit <https://ovc.ojp.gov/training-and-technical-assistance/voca>
For technical assistance, email VOCACenter@ncja.org or call 202-480-5551.