

The OVC Center for VOCA Administrators

Support for Victim Compensation Administrators

The Office for Victims of Crime Center for VOCA Administrators (the OVC VOCA Center), managed by the National Criminal Justice Association, provides peer-to-peer training, technical assistance, and learning opportunities to Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Assistance and Compensation Administrators and their staff.

Addressing Gaps in Services

Improving Grant Administration

Increasing Compensation Benefits

Streamlining Application Processes

Implementing Trauma-Informed Practices

Reaching Underserved Populations

Sharing Best Practices

Effective Outreach to Crime Victims

Virtual Learning Communities and Online Resources

New Administrator Academy

Addressing Crime Victim Barriers to Accessing Compensation

Peer Coaching

Meetings and Networking Opportunities